

Camp Omega's Confirmation Summer Camp

August 12-15, 2012

Who: Confirmation Students and their Instructors (no chaperones needed).

What:

- Kick off confirmation in a camp setting. Camp Omega staff leads confirmation students in typical camp activities, confirmation instructors discuss topics. Counselors will provide supervision during all activities times as well as over-night in cabins. Instructors stay in Retreat Center.
- Two hours per day is set aside for instructors to meet with their students and discuss confirmation topics. Confirmation instruction/study times for each congregation provided by their own confirmation instructor.

When: August 12-15, 2012

Why:

Confirmation Camp offers an opportunity for:

- students to form strong relationship with classmates right from the beginning of the confirmation year.
- instructors to facilitate their own curriculum.
- students to get to know confirmation students from other congregations.
- students to see college-aged adults living out the Christian faith in a fun and meaningful way.
- fun in God's creation.

Times: Arrival on first day of the session is 4 PM.

Departure on last day of the session is 1 PM.

Cost: $160 per participant. This includes programming, supervision, nights lodging and meals. One instructor per class comes free.
