SPEAKER BIOS

Robin Dugall

Robin has over 35 years of professional ministry experience as a pastor, musician, teacher, professor, camping & student ministry leader. He is currently the Pastor of Peace in Monroe, WA, as well as an Adjunct Professor in Biblical Studies at Azusa Pacific University, a Guest Lecturer in Youth Ministry and Leadership Development/Spiritual Formation at Pacific Life Bible College and a member of the Tracking the Spirit Team for the Northwest District. He is also the author of Worship Experiences (Gospel Light/Regal), a contributing author in the book, The Gospel according to Superheroes (Lang, 2005), and a frequent contributor to blogs & websites that contribute to the conversation regarding ministry in the 21st century, ministry to families & students.

Andy Sonneland

Andy has served as Executive Director at Camp Spalding & Clearwater Lodge for 20 years. A Presbyterian Church (USA) site in Eastern Washington, Camp Spalding's summer camp attendance has more than doubled during that time (with a record 1,608 campers at Spalding-sponsored, resident camps in 2008), despite a steady decline in membership of its Presbytery's fifty churches during the same period. Andy and his wife, Krisi, have five children, including the latest addition - a six-year-old boy adopted from China last April! A graduate of Occidental College, Andy is finishing his Masters in Theology degree from Whitworth University.

Brenda Jank

Brenda is a speaker, visionary leader and champion of rest. An intensely personal, life-altering, 20-year journey into the Rhythms of Rest turned into a professional outlet in 1999 when Brenda began directing the Personal Retreat Ministry at Camp Lutherhaven, IN where her husband, Tim, is the Executive Director. As an author, she's written for Focus on the Family, Discipleship Journal, Willow Creek and various Christianity Today publications. The ministry Run hard. Rest well., which launched in 2008, seeks to equip God's people to explore and rediscover the power and purpose of rest within the overload of our 24/7 culture and equip Christian camps and retreat centers to launch vibrant personal retreat ministries. As the mother of five (ages 10 to 16), her passion for rest is fueled by a home-grown desire to live, day by day, in the fullness of Christ.

Rev. Mike Ward, CFRE

Mike's call to ministry came while serving on the summer staff and as the interim Program Director at Camp Lutherock, North Carolina. Following seminary he served as pastor of youth and family ministry in a congregation in Charlotte, North Carolina. In 9 and a half years he has overseen the development efforts at Lutheridge + Lutherock that raised $8.1 million in one campaign and now the challenge phase has raised an additional $3.6 million. The annual fund has more than doubled since 2001. Revenue from retreats in the non-summer has also more than doubled since Mike took responsibility for it in 2003. Mike Majored in Hospitality Management, minored in Outdoor Recreation and is a graduate of the Disney Institute's course on Loyalty and Quality Service. Mike also works with Gronlund/Sayther/Brunkow as a consultant to camps and congregations. Mike can be reached at ward@gsbfr.com or 828-674-2307

Signe White

Signe has served full-time in outdoors ministry for 10 years. After graduating from Concordia University Wisconsin, Signe served in a variety of ministries ranging from overseas short-term music ministry in East Africa, Lutheran high school teacher, and an ESL teacher in China. Through all these experiences God has continued to teach her patience, trust, love, and the importance of laughing at oneself! If my life were a summer theme it might be...Eat, Pray, Love...wait...that's a movie with a different red-head.

Andrea Scofield

Andrea has been with Camp Lutherwood for one year and previously worked with Concordia University Foundation in Portland as the Director of Alumni and Parent Relations and as a Development Officer. She is active in the local ACA chapter, ALDE chapter, and serves on the LOM (Lutheran Outdoor Ministries) board for the ELCA
